

EDUCATION AND OUTREACH

CENTRE FELLOWS 2018

During the year, the Centre worked with 16 fellows, with three new fellows appointed. We welcomed Peter Varghese as a Distinguished Fellow, Mark Stickells, and James Bowen as Research Fellows. The Centre operates a cross-disciplinary presence in Indo-Pacific expertise by building its Centre Fellows program to support the development of a strategic affairs community in the region.

TEACHING COLLABORATIONS

The Centre supports formal teaching activities at The University of Western Australia by presenting as part of existing courses. This also allows the Centre to enrich the student experience and raise the Centre's profile.

2018 TEACHING COLLABORATIONS INCLUDED:

- Guest lecture in ASIA3005 'Democratisation in Asia'
- Guest Lecture in Politics in the USA 'The US System in Crisis'
- Guest lecture to Masters of International Relations students 'North Korea'
- Delivery and support of the US Foreign Policy Masters Intensive course in collaboration with Dr Gorana Grgic from USSC
- Guest lecture in ASIA2002 'Australia and Asia'

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Each year, we host a prestigious and high-quality intern program for students with experience in international relations, strategic communications and related fields of study. During 2018, we hosted 12 students across four intake periods. Students assisted with our flagship events, publications and research programs.

2018 INTERNS

Adehlia Ebert	Caleb Gorton
Tara Duane	Masood Nazimi
Theo Stapleton	Isabelle Lewis
Georgina Eagleton	Anirudh Rangarajan
Olivia Roberts	Ante Malenica
Christine Chen	Winona Wroe

AT A GLANCE

WORLD KNOWLEDGE FORUM

Considered one of the most significant gatherings of delegates from around the world, the World Knowledge Forum attended by our CEO, Professor Gordon Flake, and featured 200 speakers, including former UN secretary general Ban Ki-Moon and was held at Jangchung Arena Shilla in Seoul.

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM

Our Study Abroad Program provides students with the opportunity to expand their learning journey. In July 2018, 17 undergraduates from The University of Western Australia travelled to Los Angeles, enrolled in Arts and Commerce tertiary units, enjoying a unique opportunity to study, work and live in the United States. Students complete two units of study which serve as credits towards their degrees, supported by a professional placement to build on their work experience.

STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

The Centre collaborates with a range of groups and organisations to deliver presentations and offers a range of opportunities to undergraduate and postgraduate students, and members of the community across the State, as part of their 'outside the classroom' activities.

IN 2018, MEMBERS OF THE CENTRE DELIVERED THE FOLLOWING PRESENTATIONS:

- Public lecture at the Curtin International Relations Society.
- Briefing to incoming students as part of the Bachelor of Philosophy Orientation Day.
- Guest workshop ENVOY (UWA International Relations club) on Journalism & Article Writing
- Participation in a panel discussion 'Our place between the two superpowers' in collaboration with Australia China Youth Association and Envoy students
- Public lecture for students participating in University of the 3rd Age
- Lecture to WA Young Liberals
- China Matters Young Professionals event

CONFERENCE ATTENDANCE

During the year, undergraduate and postgraduate students at all five WA Universities are invited to submit expressions of interest to access free tickets to the Centre's major conferences. In the Zone and the WA Indo-Pacific Defence Conference normally cost $200 to attend.

AT A GLANCE

PUBLIC LECTURE – NORTH KOREA MISSILE STANDOFF: PREPARE FOR WAR

In March, Distinguished Fellow the Honourable Kim Beazley, now the Governor of Western Australia and Centre CEO Professor Gordon Flake presented a public lecture exploring the impact of the Trump Administration on the Indo-Pacific, attracting 90 guests to The University Club of Western Australia.